Gamat 3000

Gamat 3000 are the childhood friends Daniel Scholz and Matthias Tanzmann. Since the mid-90's, they have made themselves well known for their brilliant DJ sets, as well as for producing „various electronic stuff“, published under varying synonyms.

In the beginning, Matthias Tanzmann made his way through Leipzig's „Blauer Pudel“ and „Nautilus“ bar to a resident DJ job in the legendary „Distillery“ club. While in Daniel Scholz's early days, he got a lot of public for his remix of the Swiss pop duo Yello during the „Hands on Yello“ project.

In early 1999, the first Gamat 3000 single „Permanent Funk“ was released on Steve Bugs deep-house label Dessous Recordings and was well received by the press and the dance floor. In the summer of 1999 „Feeling Love“ followed on the „Distille Cup“ EP released by the Freude Am Tanzen label and turned out to become a real club hit. And after several tracks and compilation contributions (for example on C-Rocks 'Stereography'-Sampler (Lo-Fi) and Steve Bugs 'Erotic Moments In House'-Compilation (Dessous)) their second single „Sunglasses & Soda“ was released on Dessous Recordings in summer 2000.

This August saw the first Gamat 3000 release on Matthias Tanzmann's new founded Moon Harbour Recordings label with the single „Radio Moon“, another brilliant proof of his nightdreaming sounds, and this autumn everything is set for their long anticipated Debut Album release „All Season's“ on Dessous Recordings.

There is no special division of work within Gamat 3000, but since Daniel lives in Berlin and Matthias studies at the Bauhaus University in Weimar, they both build up nearly identical studios in their flats, so that they could work simultaneously on the new album.

Always in search of new sound material, there's still a lot to be heard of Gamat 3000.
