ENGLISH:

Vienna has a longstanding reputation for producing one extraordinary artist after the other. But the city on the Danube has never been able to make a name for itself as a top-class clubbing metropolis. However, recently Vienna seems to have been roused from its slumber. More and more new clubs are opening their doors. And, of course, with these new clubs come new deejays.

Andy Catana and Christopher Groove met at the Vienna Camera Club in 2007 during their weekly residency gigs at the MNML clubbing series. In 2008 Andy Catana founded the Do Easy Records label. Christopher Groove has become one of its figureheads. For several years he's been very active as producer. Offstage he has already done the mixing for a number of established young artists. In 2009 Andy Catana and Christopher Groove met the young, aspiring producer Daniel Kovac, who has since joined Catana as co-owner of the Do Easy label.

The "Vienna EP" focuses on the essentials: good grooves and breaks which are suitable for both peak-time and deep sets. The artists use various sounds from house-music history for the grooves, without merely copying them. On this EP only the original mix of Christopher Groove's "Animaux de la Manana", which will be available as an exclusive digital track, stands out in terms of style: it's an elegantly relaxed after-hours track.

Free download voucher for all vinyl tracks included with the first 500 copies.

DEUTSCH:

Dass Wien immer wieder außergewöhnliche Künstler hervorbringt, ist schon länger bekannt. Doch als Partymetropole für elektronische Musik konnte sich die Stadt an der Donau bislang nicht wirklich an vorderster Front etablieren. Jedoch seit neuestem scheint Wien aus seinem Dornröschenschlaf erwacht zu sein, und immer mehr neue Clubs erblicken das Licht der Welt. Und mit den Clubs kommen natürlich auch die neuen DJs.

Andy Catana und Christopher Groove lernten sich 2007 im Camera Club in Wien während ihrer wöchentlichen Residency bei der MNML Partyreihe kennen. 2008 gründete Andy Catana das Label Do Easy Records, als eines dessen Aushängeschilder sich Christopher Groove hervorgetan hat. Seit Jahren ist er als umtriebiger Produzent aktiv und hat hinter den Kulissen bereits für einige etablierte Musiker die Regler geschoben. 2009 lernten die beiden Daniel Kovac kennen - einen jungen, aufstrebenden Producer, der mittlerweile zusammen mit Andy Catana Labelbetreiber bei Do Easy ist.

Die „Vienna EP“ konzentriert sich auf das Wesentliche: gute Grooves und Breaks, die für die Peaktime genauso wie für deepe Sets geschaffen sind. Für die Grooves bedienen sich die Artists diverser Sounds aus der Housegeschichte, verzichten dabei aber auf plattes Kopieren. Nur der Original-Mix von Christopher Grooves „Animaux de la Manana“, der als Digital Exclusive erhältlich sein wird, ist hier die Ausnahme: Er ist ein elegant-entspanntes Afterhour-Stück.
